TO INTENDING SELECTORS.

The attention of intending Selectors is specially called to existing facilities for securing HOME-STEADS and FREEHOLD FARMS, as follows:—

Any Agricultural Area of 160 acres or less may be converted into a Freehold, at the option of the selector, by five years' continuous and bond fide personal residence, the expenditure of ten shillings an acre, and the payment of rent at the rate of sixpence an acre annually. That is, five annual payments of sixpence, amounting in all to HALF-A-CROWN an acre, in addition to the survey and deed fees, will secure the fee-simple of the land, the conditions of residence and improvement as above shown being fulfilled. The survey-fee may be paid in five equal annual instalments. When the rent has been fixed in the Proclamation at less than sixpence, the balance must be paid at the end of the five years, when the grant is claimed. If the rent has been fixed at more than sixpence, the selector need not pay more than sixpence an acre a year during the five years if he still resides personally on the land. The right to take advantage of these provisions may be claimed at any time within seven years after the land is taken up.

The freehold of Agricultural Farms of 1,280 acres or less may be secured in any Agricultural Area after the continuous personal residence of the selector or lessee for the time being for a period of 10 years. This right may be exercised during the whole 50 years of the lease. If it is exercised within 12 years from selection the price to be paid is that fixed by the Proclamation throwing the land open for selection. The amount that has already been paid for rent during the period of continuous personal residence, however long, is counted in part-payment of the price of the freehold. The residence must have been bond fide personal and continuous, and the land must be surrounded by a substantial fence, or there must be improvements of an equal value to the cost of such fence.

If the right of acquiring the freehold is exercised after the first 12 years of the lease the price is liable to be increased in proportion to the increase of rent, if any.

TO INTENDING SELECTORS.

The attention of intending Selectors is specially called to existing facilities for securing HOMESTEADS and FREEHOLD FARMS, as follows:—

Any Agricultural Area of 160 acres or less may be converted into a Freehold, at the option of the selector, by five years' continuous and bonâ fide personal residence, the expenditure of ten shillings an acre, and the payment of rent at the rate of sixpence an acre annually. That is, five annual payments of sixpence, amounting in all to HALF-A-CROWN an acre, in addition to the survey and deed fees, will secure the fee-simple of the land, the conditions of residence and improvement as above shown being fulfilled. The survey-fee may be paid in five equal annual instalments. When the rent has been fixed in the Proclamation at less than sixpence, the balance must be paid at the end of the five years, when the grant is claimed. If the rent has been fixed at more than sixpence, the selector need not pay more than sixpence an acre a year during the five years if he still resides personally on the land. The right to take advantage of these provisions may be claimed at any time within seven years after the land is taken up.

The freehold of Agricultural Farms of 1,280 acres or less may be secured in any Agricultural Area after the continuous personal residence of the selector or lessee for the time being for a period of 10 years. This right may be exercised during the whole 50 years of the lease. If it is exercised within 12 years from selection the price to be paid is that fixed by the Proclamation throwing the land open for selection. The amount that has already been paid for rent during the period of continuous personal residence, however long, is counted in part-payment of the price of the freehold. The residence must have been bonâ fide personal and continuous, and the land must be surrounded by a substantial fence, or there must be improvements of an equal value to the cost of such fence.

If the right of acquiring the freehold is exercised after the first 12 years of the lease the price is liable to be increased in proportion to the increase of rent, if any.

PAPER AND BINDING MATERIALS.

TENDERS will be received at this Office until Noon on TUESDAY, the 10th day of January, 1888, from persons willing to contract for the supply of Paper and Binding Materials required by the Government Printing Department in Queensland, for two years, commencing on the 1st July, 1888.

A list of the probable quantities of each article required can be obtained on application to the Government Printer, at Brisbane, Sydney, and Melbourne, where samples can be seen, it being understood that in all cases the articles supplied must be in every respect according to sample. As this list is only an approximate one, the contractors must supply on demand more of each article, according to the requirements of the Department.

Tenderers must state the price at which each article is to be delivered at the Government Printing Office, Brisbane. One-fourth of the probable quantity required is to be delivered in the month of July, 1888; one-fourth in January, 1889; one-fourth in July, 1889; and the remaining fourth in January, 1890.

A memorandum must be attached to each Tender, signed by the party tendering, and two responsible persons as sureties, agreeing to be answerable for the due performance of the Contract in the event of the Tender being accepted, and undertaking in such case that they will severally execute and deliver, at the Office of the Crown Solicitor, in Brisbane, within seven days from the notification of the acceptance of Tender, a Bond to Her Majesty for securing such performance, in the sum of £500.

Tenders to be endorsed "Tender for Printing and Binding Materials," and to be addressed to the Colonial Secretary, Brisbane.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any Tender.

SUPPOSED POISON PLANTS AND PLANTS
DELETERIOUS TO STOCK IN QUEENSLAND.

A PAMPHLET bearing on the above, compiled by the Colonial Botanist and Chief Inspector of Stock, now published, and on Sale at the Government Printing Office, Brisbane, or through Booksellers. Price, 4s. in cloth; postage 8d. within, and 1s. 4d. beyond, the Colony, extra.

In this Pamphlet will be found a brief and popular description, with Illustrations, of these Plants; together with references to the Works in which they are scientifically described, and also much information as to their several properties and effects upon stock.

JAMES C. BEAL,
Government Printer.

ON SALE, at the Government Printing Office, William street, Brisbane, the Acts and Orders relating to the Jurisdiction, Practice, and Pleading of the Supreme Court of Queensland (on the Crown Side), arranged with notes by The Honourable George R. Harding, one of the Justices of that Court.

"The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887," have just been promulgated and published in a Government Gazette for general information, and advantage of this opportunity has been taken to collect, in a convenient form, the Statutes of the Colony relating to the jurisdiction, practice, and pleading of the Court on the Crown Side. This has been done by incorporating them with the Rules, in what appeared to be their appropriate places or under substantive titles.

A full and complete Index has been printed in Roman and Italic type. The Roman refers to the Rules, the Italic to the Statutes and Notes.

Marginal notes have been furnished to all the Rules; and under such marginal notes, and those to the Statutes, have been given, as far as practicable, references to the corresponding English Rules and Statutes, and when the Rule is founded solely on a pre-existing Queensland Rule, to that Rule.

For facility of reference have been added Tables of "The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887," Appendices to same, Substantive Titles, Miscellaneous Forms, Summaries of Particular Subjects, Cases, and Crimes of the most Frequent Occurrence, with their Punishments, etc.; also a Tabular Statement of Statutes, cited both by their years and short titles, and vice versa by their short titles and years; a Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes, both with reference to the corresponding English and Queensland Statutes printed in the text. But with reference to the pages in the latter analysis of the Queensland Statutes the figures are printed in Roman and Italic, the first indicating that the sections are set out in full, the latter that the sections are only cited; and similarly in the Tabular Analysis of English Statutes, the Roman figures indicate that at such pages the corresponding Queensland sections are set out in full, while the Italics denote that the English section is cited; and when no page is given the English section is not referred to in the text. The citation of the corresponding Queensland section may be found by reference to the Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes.

The whole is uniform in its general arrangement with the Statutes and Orders on the Civil Side, published in 1885.

Demy 4to., 140 pp., interleaved, full bound, in Red Roan.

Price, 42s.; postage, in the colony 1s. 6d. beyond the colony 3s. 6d. extra.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.

THE following Regulations, which have been made by the Collector of Customs, under the provisions of "The Customs Act of 1873," are published for general information.

For the Colonial Treasurer,
C. B. DUTTON.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS BY THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

No. 1.—19th October, 1886.

Smoking by Customs officers while on duty, either on shipboard or on shore is absolutely prohibited.

Sealing hatches.—The heating of wax necessary for this purpose should be done with a hot iron, and only in the presence of some responsible officer of the vessel.

Naked lights are not to be used on shipboard when searching.

No. 2.—27th October, 1886.

An impression appears to exist in the minds of officers of this Department that only outdoor officers of a certain grade in the service are authorised to make seizures. It is to be understood that any officer of any rank, employed either in the indoor or outdoor branch, may make seizures, and is entitled to receive from the proceeds thereof any moiety allowed by law.

The rights of tide-waiters and officers below that rank to make seizures are not prejudiced by the powers conferred on officers of higher rank by second paragraph of clause forty-five of "The Customs Act of 1873."

No. 3.—6th November, 1886.

Custom-house agents' licenses can only be granted in the name of an individual. They should not be issued in the name of a firm.

No. 5.—26th November, 1886.

Chinese crackers are not to be treated as explosives.

No. 6.—2nd December, 1886.

Vessels bound to New Guinea will be cleared only for ports where a representative of Government is stationed.

All goods under bond, except such moderate quantities as may be allowed for stores, are to be advised to the port by usual form of advice notes. Should any goods so shipped be not duly received, the shippers to be held responsible for duty on same, under their bonds.

Pearl-shell-fishers and others fishing in Queensland waters should be given to understand that they are not entitled to the use of dutiable goods free of duty, and that any such persons buying or selling dutiable goods and using them, knowing the duty has not been paid, are liable to heavy penalties, and their boats liable to forfeiture.

No. 10.—19th January, 1887.

Overtime goods—that is, goods over three years in bond—should always be sold in bond, not duty paid as is sometimes done; the goods may then be either exported or duty paid within one month from date of sale, according to the wish of the purchaser.

No. 11.—28th January, 1887.

Masters of coasters of fifty tons and upwards who hold a certificate of exemption from pilotage for any port they may be about to clear from, and having paid monthly dues within a month prior to the date of clearance, shall, at the first port of entry at which they are not exempt, pay sixpence per ton, and shall not be required to make any further payment inwards during the voyage specified in the transire issued at the first port of clearance.

It is considered that payment of a monthly rate is equivalent to payment of the pilotage rate at the port of clearance (section three, subsection four, "Port Dues Revision Act of 1882").

No. 14.—14th March, 1887.

When high duty goods are short landed it is considered advisable, when it is asserted a claim has been paid for them, such assertion should be supported by a letter from the consignee of the goods.

No. 17.—24th March, 1887.

Chinese passengers should be marked off passenger lists lodged with report, in this form:—

Guthrie, @ Hongkong, 24th November, 1885. Chea Fai, paid £30, 26th November, 1885; No. 2514. Chow Shew, permit 4705; Brisbane, 12th December, 1884, for twelve months.

No. 19.—26th April, 1887.

Ships' registers are on no account to be kept at the Custom-house.

Particulars of registers should be taken at time of vessel's report, entered in report inwards book, and then handed back to masters.

*In the case of a wreck the register should be sent to me.

No. 24.—28th April, 1887.

Drawback of duty will not be allowed on any goods unless drawback entries have been passed and a certificate produced from the landing-waiter that the goods described therein have been examined by him and shipped in his presence.

No. 25.—27th May, 1887.

Masters of vessels when claiming exemption from pilotage for the first time must produce their exemption certificates, the particulars of which are to be recorded.

No. 29.—13th July, 1887.

Officers when receipting monthly overtime vouchers for amounts over a pound should affix thereto a penny stamp.

A receipt-stamp is not necessary when receipting accounts for overtime paid over the counter by the public.

No. 30.—13th July, 1887.

When endorsing transires care should be taken to avoid writing over that part whereon the under bond goods are described.

Complaints have been made about overcrowding transires, insufficient room being allowed to mark off goods.

No. 31.—13th July, 1887.

Leave of Absence.—Sub-collectors and officers in charge may grant leave of absence to the officers and men of the Customs Department under their control, for a period not exceeding one week, advising me at the same time that such leave has been granted, for the purpose of recording same in the leave of absence book.

No. 34.—6th September, 1887.

Vessels clearing laden with coke the produce of Queensland should be treated for dues as in ballast.

No. 38.—30th September, 1887.

Masters of vessels applying for exemptions from pilotage must make three voyages in and three voyages out as master, or five voyages in and five voyages out as mate and one voyage in and one out as master, before they can claim same.

SHIPS' STORES.

No. 40.—13th October, 1887.

Circular dated 3rd May, 1886, referring to ships' stores, is not to apply to vessels arriving from intercolonial or foreign ports, and whose destination after leaving any port is some place beyond the colony; such vessels are entitled to the use of their stores in moderate quantities, duty free, while in port, in terms of clause 79 of "The Customs Act of 1873."

* Not to apply to Maryborough, Rockhampton, and Townsville.

No. 41.—17th October, 1887.

Attention is drawn to Proclamation and Regulation referring to importation of cattle, horses, sheep, pigs, and other animals, Government Gazette, volume 42, No. 26, 6th October, 1887.

No. 42.—8th November, 1887.

You are to exercise discretion in giving notice to importers of your intention to deal with goods in terms of clause 114 of "The Customs Act of 1873," when you have reason to suppose any such goods, through decay or otherwise, are considered by importers not worth clearing. The intention of this order is to prevent worthless goods lumbering up the bond, and to authorise their being dealt with before becoming overtime.

No. 45.—5th December, 1887.

Papers sent out for the information of sub-collectors and other officers of Customs should be marked "noted," and initialled by the officer to whom addressed before they are returned to the head office.

No. 46.—13th December, 1887.

A list showing the names of returned Chinese who have been granted permits and who have arrived at your port should be made out at the end of every month and forwarded to the Treasury.

No. 47.—22nd November, 1887.

All goods not removed from the wharves within the periods specified below from the date of entry inwards of the importing ship, will be taken to the Queen's warehouse, at the owners' risk and expense, and if any such goods are not cleared within three months from the date of removal to the said warehouse they will be sold by public auction.

Goods of a perishable nature, if not cleared within the time allowed by law, will be sold forthwith.

Tenders must state separately—

- (1) Price, per mile, for clearing and erection of iron poles;
- (2) Price, per mile, for affixing insulators, and stretching wire;
- (3) Price, each, for wooden poles, where necessary.

Charleville to Adavale—a distance of one hundred and twenty (120) miles, more or less.

The wire, insulators, and iron poles to be supplied by the Government, and delivered to the contractor in Brisbane. The quantities issued will be upon the proper estimate and requisition of the contractor, who will be held responsible for applying for sufficient, and any surplus material after the completion of the contract must be delivered by the contractor, free of charge, at the nearest Telegraph Station, as directed.

General Conditions.

Payment will be made monthly to the extent of seventy-five (75) per cent. on the value of the work reported to have been completed by the officer appointed to inspect the same; but, notwithstanding such report and payment on account, the Superintendent of Electric Telegraphs, or other officer appointed by him in that behalf, shall have full power at any time afterwards, before final payment shall be made, of rejecting and condemning any of the work or materials in respect of which such report and payments may have been made. The total balance will be paid when the entire contract shall have been completed to the satisfaction of the Government.

The Government reserves to itself the right to make use of the line for the transmission of messages, prior to final completion. Such use of the line not to prejudice in any way the power to subsequently reject or condemn any portion of the work or materials.

The contractor may avail himself of the facilities afforded by "The Electric Telegraph Act" for obtaining materials, on signing a Bond indemnifying the Government against any claims for compensation arising from the action of the contractor: Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent, from moneys due to the contractor, if not otherwise settled, to satisfy any such claim he may see fit.

The contractor will be responsible for all claims for compensation for damage to fences or other property caused by the erection of the line, also for damage so caused to roads; and if such claims are not defrayed, the Superintendent is authorised to pay the same from any moneys due to the contractor.

Should the contractor fail to proceed in the execution of, or to complete, the work in the manner and at the rate of progress required by the Government, it shall be in the power of the Government, by a notice in the Queensland Government Gazette, to terminate the contract, as far as relates to the work remaining to be done, and to enforce the penalties for the non-fulfilment of the contract; and all sums of money which may be due to the contractor, together with all plant, materials, and implements in his possession on the ground, and all sums of money, whether named in the Bond to be entered into by the contractor or otherwise, as penalties for the non-fulfilment of the contract, shall be forfeited.

A deposit of a sum equal to ten (10) per cent. of the total tender cost of the whole work must accompany each Tender, also a memorandum signed by the party tendering, and two responsible persons as sureties, agreeing to be answerable for the due performance of the contract within the time stipulated, in the event of the Tender being accepted, and undertaking in that event that they will severally execute and deliver at the Office of the Crown Solicitor, in Brisbane, within ten (10) days from the notification of the acceptance of the Tender, a Bond to Her Majesty in a sum equal to twenty (20) per cent. on the amount of the Tender.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender.

Any branches overhanging from trees beyond the distance mentioned, which in the judgment of the inspecting officer might endanger the line, to be removed.

All existing cleared roads which may become blocked by fallen timber must be cleared by the removal of the timber to the original width of such roadway. In cases where tracks may become blocked, all fallen timber must be removed, leaving a cleared space of not less than twenty (20) feet in width, following the course of such track.

- (a) Those who, suffering from consumption, cancer, or other diseases, are, upon due examination, deemed incurable ;
- (b) Those whose complaints are deemed likely to be so tedious of cure as to preclude for a long time the admission of more urgent cases of disease ;
- (c) Those who have disorders, to the cure of which other establishments are appropriated—as maniacs, &c. ;
- (d) Those who, wanting food and not medicine, are more properly objects of charity.
- (e) Those whose admission might endanger the other patients—as persons suffering from smallpox, erysipelas, itch, and other infectious distempers ; and
- (f) Those whose complaints are likely to be aggravated rather than relieved by confinement within the walls of a Hospital—as persons afflicted with asthma, consumption, &c., but such of these as are proper objects shall receive advice and medicine as out-patients.

2. Accidents and urgent cases may be received at all hours of the day or night, without a recommendation

3. No persons shall be admitted as in-patients, nor remain in the house, though admitted, if equal relief can be afforded to them as out-patients.

4. All patients received into the Institution as urgent cases or accidents, without the recommendation of a subscriber, shall, if able, pay such sum for lodgings and medicines as may be determined by the visiting committee ; and patients recommended by subscribers, if known to possess means, shall pay such sums as shall be determined by the visiting committee, or be refused admission.

5. Although the really necessitous be considered the proper objects of this charity, persons possessing means for themselves, or through friends, masters, or employers, may be admitted as in-patients, upon the payment of such sum per diem as the committee may from time to time appoint.

6. All persons having recommendations as in-patients, are required, if able, to present themselves at the Institution daily, before eleven o'clock a.m., in order that they may be examined.

7. Patients, on admission, shall be properly bathed and cleansed before they enter the ward, and shall be furnished with clean linen as far as necessary.

8. Patients, while in the Hospital, must submit to the regulations, as explained by the head nurse or the nurse of the ward in which they are placed. They are, in all matters, subject to the head nurse and the nurse of the ward, and should they have any cause of complaint, they are requested to state the same to the head nurse or resident surgeon, who shall report same to the visiting committee, and the complaint is to be entered by the party to whom made in the complaint book.

9. No patient shall bring in, send for, or receive any kind of provisions or liquors.

10. Patients shall not conceal any disease, nor any circumstance relating thereto, and must take their medicines regularly at the stated intervals, and in the manner prescribed. Patients refusing to obey the instructions of the resident surgeon will be immediately dismissed.

11. Such patients as are able to do so, are required to wash themselves regularly, every morning before breakfast, in the lavatories or basins provided for that purpose ; and in all other respects they must pay the utmost attention to personal cleanliness. All patients shall be especially warned against throwing poultices, rags, &c., into the closets or sinks.

12. Patients are strictly prohibited from disturbing the ward by improper conduct or conversation, and are forbidden to disobey or behave rudely to the head nurse, or nurse of ward, or to swear, quarrel, talk loudly, smoke, or chew tobacco, upon pain of immediate expulsion.

19. Patients must be silent and respectful when the authorities or resident surgeon visit the wards.

20. 22. Patients shall be particularly careful of everything belonging to the Hospital, and shall be held responsible for any deficiency or breakage in the contents of their respective lockers.

23. Patients are forbidden to offer or promise any remuneration to the officials. An infringement of this regulation subjects the person implicated to the loss of his or her situation, and the patient offering the bribe will be immediately dismissed, and will on no account be allowed to re-enter the Hospital.

24. No person shall remain in the house longer than six weeks in ordinary, or two months in extraordinary, cases, except by the sanction of the visiting committee.

25. Every patient shall receive his or her discharge from the resident surgeon, and when discharged shall be asked whether he or she has any ground of complaint, and if any complaint shall be made, the same shall be entered in the book of complaints.

OUT-PATIENTS.

1. Out-patients shall be seen on such days and hours as the committee may determine.

2. They shall, at their first attendance, produce certificates of being in indigent circumstances, before obtaining gratuitously the benefits of the Institution; or when able to pay, they shall do so in the amount judged reasonable by the resident surgeon, who shall be guided in such charges by the directions of committee. Any subscriber's ticket may be cancelled if the patients are found to be able to pay.

3. They shall attend the Hospital at the specified time, and shall not be entitled to treatment unless punctual in their attendance.

4. Patients who absent themselves for more than a fortnight without permission, or without giving a satisfactory reason, shall forfeit their tickets.

Prior to 1st September, 1875, the policies issued by the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company were of two kinds, viz., "Without Bonus," and "With Bonus," such bonus being guaranteed and endorsed on the policies as a scale of increasing insurance. In September, 1875, the guaranteed system was abandoned for future assurances, and in lieu thereof was instituted a class "B," four-fifths of the profits of which belong to the policy-holders thereunder. The first division was made at the close of 1878, when a reversionary bonus of £7 per centum on the sum assured, irrespective of age, was declared in regard to policies upon which four annual premiums had been paid, or at the rate of thirty-five shillings per centum for each yearly premium paid for the younger policies. At the close of 1883 a second division was made at a similar rate, making the total from the commencement a bonus of thirty-five shillings per centum per annum on each policy under that Table.

I, William Webster, being agent for the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company, do hereby solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the books of the said Company, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, this is a true Abstract of the Liabilities and Assets of the Company for the year ending 31st December, 1887.

Cumulus types prevailed and were observed about 65 times; nimbus noted about 35 times; cirro-cumulus, 10 times; cirro-stratus, 25 times; cumulo-stratus, 18 times; cirrus, 18 times; and stratus, 3 times, at the ordinary hours of observation. RAINFALL. (Gauge exposed at 1 foot above ground.) Number of "rainy" days (0·006 and over), 25. Greatest fall in 24 hours, 1·440 inches, or 145 tons per acre, on 26th. Grand total, 4·138 inches, or 419 tons per acre. REMARKS. Mean pressure increased by 0·042. Mean temperature was 2·6 degrees higher than in November. The vapour tension was ·048 higher than in November. The percentage of humidity was the same as in November. Dews were frequent between the 3rd and 17th, several amounts between 0·006 and 0·013 having been registered owing to dewfall. Thunder-storm on 26th. Distant lightning occasionally. The mean temperature of the Brisbane River, at 9 a.m., taken at Kangaroo Point, was about 77·0. The prevailing easterly winds distinctly proved that south-eastern Queensland was chiefly under the influence of the northern edge of anti-cyclonic or high-pressure systems, travelling eastward, the centres of which passed south from Brisbane in latitude 35, longitude 155 E. a All values are corrected for Index Error, if necessary.

b Previous Mean Temperatures for December, as published, are probably about 2·3 degrees too high.

* NOTE.—The average death-rate of children under 1 year, as compared to births, during the ten years ended 31st December, 1886, throughout the whole of Queensland, was 13·44. Vide Vital Statistics of 1886.

A. RUTLEDGE,
Attorney-General.

RULES OF THE COURT OF PETTY SESSIONS FOR THE DISTRICT OF LEYBURN.

SMALL DEBTS JURISDICTION.

At a Court of Petty Sessions for the Police District of Leyburn in its Small Debts Jurisdiction, holden at the Court-house, Leyburn, on the 24th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, it is ordered and directed that all existing Rules of the said Court in the said district, save and except as regards any steps and proceedings heretofore taken, shall be and the same are hereby cancelled and annulled, and in lieu thereof the following shall be the Rules of Practice adopted and used in the said Court.

Time of holding Court.

1. A Court of Petty Sessions in the Small Debts Jurisdiction shall be held every Friday, unless such day shall fall on a proclaimed public holiday, in which event the Court shall stand adjourned until the same hour on such subsequent day as shall not be a holiday; always provided that in cases under the forty-first section of the Act 31 Vic. No. 29, relating to judgment summonses, or under the fifty-first section of the said Act relating to interpleader cases, it shall be lawful for the Court to sit on any other day which may be convenient, subject to the provisions of the said sections.

Time for entering plaint.

2. In all cases where the defendant, or one or two or more defendants, resides or reside within the Police District of Leyburn, the plaint shall be entered four clear days, and the summons served three clear days, prior to the sittings of each Court; but where the defendant, or one or more of any number of joint defendants, resides or reside outside of the said police district, the plaintiff shall be entered ten clear days, and the summons shall be served at least eight clear days prior to the sittings of the Court.

Defence, when to be filed.

3. In all cases the plea of defence shall be filed with the Registrar of the Court one clear day before the return day of the summons.

Bills of particulars.

4. The plaintiff shall, upon entering a plaint with the Registrar of the Court, furnish him with two copies of bill of particulars.

Notice of withdrawal.

5. Notice of withdrawal, confession of judgment, or payment into Court, must be given or made one clear day before the return day of the summons. Provided that where the defendant, or one or more of any number of joint defendants, resides or reside outside of the said police district, notice of withdrawal shall be given two clear days before the return day of the summons. Provided that at any time plaintiff may give notice of withdrawal, or the defendant may confess and admit the claim or make any payment into Court, subject, however, to such professional and other costs as the Court may order.

What books shall be kept.

6. The Registrar shall keep a day-book in which he shall correctly enter an account of the business of each day as the same arises, together with a record-book, which book shall be in Court on trial and in which shall be entered the proceedings of the Court.

The Registrar and bailiff to attend Court.

7. The Registrar and bailiff shall attend all sittings of the Court in person (except when authorised by the bench to be absent). In case of such absence such officers may nominate deputies subject to the approval of the bench; and such Registrar or bailiff, respectively, shall also attend the justices of their Court on all other occasions wherein (as connected with causes or suitors) their assistance or information may be necessary.

Execution, when to issue.

8. Execution may be taken out at any time after the expiration of seven days from the date of the adjudication of the case, excepting where time has been granted by the Court, and then on the day and time appointed, unless it be shown on oath to the satisfaction of the bench that the judgment of the Court would be defeated by delay, in which event execution may, upon the order of the Court to that effect, issue at any time after judgment; or excepting also a new trial has been granted by the Court; or in cases over ten pounds where an appeal has been made in terms of the Principal Act: and any execution which may not have been executed within six calendar months of its date may be renewed for six months by the Registrar endorsing thereon "Renewed," and attaching his initials thereto, without any charge for same. Provided that after such renewal new execution must be taken out by the party entitled thereto; and the party applying for execution shall, before obtaining same, prove to the satisfaction of the Registrar by affidavit that the judgment is in force and unsatisfied.

that with the consent of the occupiers of any house at which property shall be levied such sale may take place at such house.

Moneys to be paid over by Registrar.

10. In every case of an execution for a debt, or damages and costs, or for costs only, the proceeds shall be paid over by the bailiff to the Registrar, and upon receipt of such proceeds into Court, and in every case where money has been paid, the amount thereof shall, on demand, be paid over by such Registrar to the party entitled thereto, or to his attorney. Provided that any surplus that may remain after any execution shall have been satisfied shall be paid by the Registrar to the execution debtor.

Interpleader.

11. The interpleader order directed to be made under the fifty-first section of the said Act shall be in the form set forth in the Schedule (Form No. 1), and shall be served on both the claimant and the execution creditor two clear days before the time appointed for the hearing thereof.

Deposit by claimant.

12. Where any claim shall be made to or in respect of any goods taken in any execution under the process of the Court, the claimant shall deposit with the bailiff either the amount of the value of the goods claimed, together with bailiff's charges up to the time of such deposit (amount to be fixed by appraisement by the Registrar in case of dispute), to be by the bailiff paid into Court to abide the decision of the Court upon such claim, or the claimant may give security, to be approved of by the Registrar, for the amount of the value of the goods and for the bailiff's charges up to the time such security is given, and in the event of such payment being made or security given the bailiff shall not remain in possession of such goods.

By whom summons or subpoena served.

13. Any summons or subpoena issued, and not taken by the plaintiff or defendant for service, shall be served by the bailiff of the Court or his deputy. Provided always in the event of there being no duly appointed bailiff, or the bailiff is not available, any person approved of by the Registrar may undertake the service thereof and receive the fees therefor.

Bailiff not compelled to execute process during the sittings of the Court.

14. The bailiff or deputy bailiff shall not be compelled to execute process in his own person during the sitting of the Court without the permission of the Court.

Præcipe for execution.

15. Before execution shall issue, the plaintiff or defendant, or his or their attorney, shall make a request in writing to the Registrar of the Court stating when judgment obtained, the amount then due and owing thereon, and the address of the person or persons against whom such execution is to issue. (Form 4.)

Forms.

16. The forms hereto annexed shall be the forms used in the matters to which they respectively refer, but other forms may be used provided they be of the like effect, or as near thereto as the nature of the case will permit, always preserving the substance of the same.

A. RUTLEDGE,

Attorney-General.

RULES OF THE COURT OF PETTY SESSIONS FOR THE DISTRICT OF ALLORA.

SMALL DEBTS JURISDICTION.

At a Court of Petty Sessions for the Police District of Allora in its Small Debts Jurisdiction, holden at the Court-house, Allora, on the third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, it is ordered and directed that all existing Rules of the said Court in the said district, save and except as regards any steps and proceedings heretofore taken, shall be and the same are hereby cancelled and annulled, and in lieu thereof the following shall be the Rules of Practice adopted and used in the said Court.

Time of holding Court.

1. A Court of Petty Sessions in the Small Debts Jurisdiction shall be held every Wednesday, unless such day shall fall on a proclaimed public holiday, in which event the Court shall stand adjourned until the same hour on the next day if such day shall not also be a holiday; always provided that in cases under section forty-one of the Act 31 Vic. No. 29, relating to judgment summonses, or under section fifty-one of the said Act relating to interpleader cases, it shall be lawful for the Court to sit on any other day which may be convenient, subject to the provisions of the said sections.

Time for entering plaint.

2. In all cases where the defendant, or one or two or more defendants, resides or reside within the Police District of Allora, the plaint shall be entered four clear days, and the summons, with a copy of particulars, served three clear days, prior to the sittings of each Court. But where the defendant or one or more of any number of joint defendants resides or reside outside of the said police district, the plaint shall be entered ten clear days, and the summons and particulars shall be served at least eight clear days, prior to the sittings of the Court.

Defence, when to be filed.

3. In all cases the plea of defence shall be filed with the Registrar of the Court one clear day before the return day of the summons.

Bills of particulars.

4. The plaintiff shall, upon entering a plaint with the Registrar of the Court, furnish him with two copies of bill of particulars and one copy for each defendant (if more than one).

Notice of withdrawal.

5. Notice of withdrawal, confession of judgment, or payment into Court must be given or made one clear day before the return day of the summons. Provided that where the defendant, or one or more of any number of joint defendants, resides or reside outside of the said police district, notice of withdrawal shall be given two clear days before the return day of the summons. Provided that at any time plaintiff may give notice of withdrawal or the defendant may confess and admit the claim or make any payment into Court, subject, however, to such professional and other costs as the Court may order.

What books shall be kept.

6. The Registrar shall keep a day-book in which he shall correctly enter an account of the business of each day as the same arises, together with a record-book, which book shall be in Court on trial and in which shall be entered the proceedings of the Court.

The Registrar and bailiff to attend Court.

7. The Registrar and bailiff shall attend all sittings of the Court in person (except when authorised by the bench to be absent). In case of such absence such officers may nominate deputies, subject to the approval of the bench; and such Registrar or bailiff respectively shall also attend the justices of their Court on all other occasions wherein (as connected with causes or suitors) their assistance or information may be necessary.

Execution, when to issue.

8. Execution may be taken out at any time after the expiration of seven days from the date of the adjudication of the case, excepting where time for payment has been granted by the Court, and then on the day and time so appointed; but provided that if it be shown on oath or otherwise to the satisfaction of the bench that the judgment of the Court would be defeated by delay, the bench may order execution to issue at any time after judgment, and may order execution to be stayed if a new trial has been granted by the Court; or in cases over ten pounds, where an appeal has been made in terms of the Principal Act; and any execution which may not have been executed within six calendar months of its date may be renewed for six months by the Registrar endorsing thereon "Renewed," and attaching his initials thereto, without any charge for same. Provided that after such renewal new execution must be taken out by the party entitled thereto; and the party applying for execution shall, before obtaining same, prove to the satisfaction of the Registrar, by affidavit, that the judgment is in force and unsatisfied.

Sales, how regulated.

9. Any property sold in execution of the process of the said Court shall be sold publicly by auction and for ready money by the bailiff or his deputy to the highest bidder, as near to the place where the same was levied as may be convenient for the sale thereof; and the said bailiff or his deputy shall cause a notice of such sale to be published in at least one of the local newspapers (if any) two clear days at least prior to the time of sale, and the said bailiff or his deputy shall affix notice of such sale upon the door of the Registrar's office, and upon or near the door of the house where the sale takes place, two days at least before the day appointed for the sale, which shall not be earlier than the fourth day from levying on the property, provided that with the consent of the occupiers of any house at which property shall be levied such sale may take place at such house.

Moneys to be paid over by Registrar.

10. In every case of an execution for a debt, or damages and costs, or for costs only, the proceeds shall be paid over by the bailiff to the Registrar, and upon receipt of such proceeds into Court, and in every case where money has been paid, the amount thereof shall, on demand, be paid over by such Registrar to the party entitled thereto, or to his attorney. Provided that any surplus that may remain after any execution shall have been satisfied shall be paid by the Registrar to the execution debtor.

Interpleader.

11. The interpleader order directed to be made under the fifty-first section of the said Act shall be in the form set forth in the Schedule (Form No. 1), and shall be served on both the claimant and the execution creditor two clear days before the time appointed for the hearing thereof.

Deposit by claimant.

12. Where any claim shall be made to or in respect of any goods taken in any execution under the process of the Court, the claimant shall deposit with the bailiff either the amount of the value of the goods claimed, together with bailiff's charges up to the time of such deposit (amount to be fixed by appraisalment by the Registrar in case of dispute), to be by the bailiff paid into Court to abide the decision of the Court upon such claim; or the claimant may give security—to be approved of by the Registrar—for the amount of the value of the goods, and for the bailiff's charges up to the time such security is given, and in the event of such payment being made or security given, the bailiff shall not remain in possession of such goods.

By whom summons or subpoena served.

13. Any summons or subpoena issued and not taken by the plaintiff or defendant for service shall be served by the bailiff of the Court or his deputy. Provided always in the event of there being no duly appointed bailiff, or the bailiff is not available, any person approved of by the Registrar may undertake the service thereof and receive the fees therefor.

Bailiff not compelled to execute process during the sittings of the Court.

14. No bailiff or deputy bailiff shall be compelled to execute process in his own person during the sittings of the Court without the permission of the Court.

Præcipe for execution.

15. Before execution shall issue, the plaintiff or defendant or his or their attorney shall make a request in writing to the Registrar of the Court, stating when judgment obtained, the amount then due and owing thereon, and the address of the person or persons against whom such execution is to issue. (Form 4.)

Forms.

16. The forms hereto annexed shall be the forms used in the matters to which they respectively refer, but other forms may be used provided they be of the like effect or as near thereto as the nature of the case will permit, always preserving the substance of same.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, directs it to be notified that he has been pleased to approve of the following Amended Rules for the Management of the Civil Affairs of the Brisbane District Rifle Club.

C. B. DUTTON.

RULES.

1. This club shall be known as "The Brisbane District Rifle Club."

2. Any person may become a member of the club on payment of an annual subscription of five shillings, payable in advance.

3. Donors of £3 and upwards shall be enrolled as life members and patrons of the club; and annual subscribers of one guinea as members and patrons.

4. The business of the club shall be managed by a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and five members of committee; three to form a quorum.

5. The office-bearers and members of committee shall be elected at the annual meeting of the club, which shall be held during the month of July in each year.

6. Any office-bearer or member of committee being absent from three consecutive meetings of the committee shall be liable, at the discretion of the committee, to have his seat declared vacant.

7. Any vacancy in the committee, caused either by resignation or by enforced retirement under Rule 6, may be filled up by the committee.

8. All meetings of the committee shall be convened by the secretary; but should he fail to do so within seven days after receiving a requisition signed by three members of the committee, any three such members may themselves convene a meeting of the committee.

9. No meeting of the committee shall be held to have been duly convened unless a written notice be forwarded to each member thereof at least twenty-four hours prior to such meeting.

10. The annual meeting of the club for the election of office-bearers shall be convened by advertisement in at least one paper circulating in the district, and not less than seven days' notice shall be given of such meeting.

11. A balance-sheet, duly audited by two gentlemen appointed at the preceding annual meeting, shall be laid before the members at each annual meeting. Should a vacancy or vacancies occur among the auditors, the committee shall have power to fill up the position.

12. A general meeting of the club must be called at any time by the secretary on receiving a requisition signed by not less than ten members, the time and object of such meeting to be advertised one week previously to such meeting.

13. Any member may be expelled from the club against whom a vote for his expulsion shall have been carried by a majority of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting specially called to consider the case.

14. The subscription of each member becomes due on the 1st of July in each year, and no one shall be entitled to the privileges of membership until his subscription be paid.

15. In addition to the quarterly subscriptions, the committee shall have power to exact an entrance fee not exceeding five shillings from each member who shall compete in a match for prizes; provided always that the entrance fees be devoted to the prize list. The committee may allow this payment to be optional if a member does not desire to compete for the money prizes.

16. After providing for the necessary expenses of the club, the committee may expend the balance of the subscriptions and other funds of the club in granting prizes to its members; the rifle matches at which such prizes are to be competed for being duly notified by advertisement.

17. In accordance with Regulations 283 and 284, Section XXXIV., of "The Queensland Defence Act, 1884," members must be acquainted with the manual and firing exercises for rifle battalions and with squad drill. They will be required to go through these exercises as a "standard of proficiency" to the satisfaction of the Commandant or his deputy at inspections which will take place from time to time, and they must keep their arms in good order.

18. The property of the club shall be vested in the president, who will be considered its representative officer in all correspondence with the Commandant, as required by Regulation 274, Section XXXIV., under "The Defence Act of 1884." No member, by reason of his being such, shall have any estate or interest in the property of the club other than a right to use the club property at the rifle ranges, in accordance with the resolutions or decisions of the committee.

19. Rifles may be bought of the club by the individual members on the terms and conditions stated in clauses 278 and 279 of the regulations beforementioned.

20. The club may purchase a reserve stock of rifles for sale or use of members of this club.

21. The committee shall have power to frame such by-laws as may from time to time be necessary for carrying on the business of this club.

GENERAL ORDER.

By Colonel G. A. FRENCH, C.M.G., R.A.,
Commandant.

Head-Quarters,
Brisbane, 13th January, 1888.

No. 599.

THE Rifle Range at Toowong is allotted to the 1st Queenslanders for the month of February, 1888, for the Annual Course of Musketry. The Officer Commanding The Moreton Regiment will see that all available men take this opportunity of completing their Annual Course.

1. The D.A.A.G., or senior officer present, will arrange that certain targets are kept available for members of Rifle Clubs or others who desire to carry on private practice, but the Class-firing is not to be unnecessarily delayed thereby.

2. The senior officer present will be held responsible if he allows any recruit or other person to continue shooting who is obviously doing so wildly—no system of stop-butts could be devised to stop bullets that strike the ground half-way up the range, and it is from these that danger is most likely to result; any man firing in such a manner should be stopped, and must complete his course at Lytton or other suitable locality.

By Order,

J. SANDERSON LYSTER, Major,
Brigade-Major.

ON SALE, at the Government Printing Office, William street, Brisbane, the Acts and Orders relating to the Jurisdiction, Practice, and Pleading of the Supreme Court of Queensland (on the Crown Side), arranged with notes by The Honourable George R. Harding, one of the Justices of that Court. "The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887," have just been promulgated and published in a Government Gazette for general information, and advantage of this opportunity has been taken to collect, in a convenient form, the Statutes of the Colony relating to the jurisdiction, practice, and pleading of the Court on the Crown Side. This has been done by incorporating them with the Rules, in what appeared to be their appropriate places or under substantive titles.

A full and complete Index has been printed in Roman and Italic type. The Roman refers to the Rules, the Italic to the Statutes and Notes.

Marginal notes have been furnished to all the Rules; and under such marginal notes, and those to the Statutes, have been given, as far as practicable, references to the corresponding English Rules and Statutes, and when the Rule is founded solely on a pre-existing Queensland Rule, to that Rule.

For facility of reference have been added Tables of "The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887," Appendices to same, Substantive Titles, Miscellaneous Forms, Summaries of Particular Subjects, Cases, and Crimes of the most Frequent Occurrence, with their Punishments, etc.; also a Tabular Statement of Statutes, cited both by their years and short titles, and vice versa by their short titles and years; a Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes, both with reference to the corresponding English and Queensland Statutes printed in the text. But with reference to the pages in the latter analysis of the Queensland Statutes the figures are printed in Roman and Italic, the first indicating that the sections are set out in full, the latter that the sections are only cited; and similarly in the Tabular Analysis of English Statutes, the Roman figures indicate that at such pages the corresponding Queensland sections are set out in full, while the Italics denote that the English section is cited; and when no page is given the English section is not referred to in the text. The citation of the corresponding Queensland section may be found by reference to the Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes.

The whole is uniform in its general arrangement with the Statutes and Orders on the Civil Side, published in 1885.

Demy 4to., 140 pp., interleaved, full bound, in Red Roan.

ON SALE, at the Government Printing Office, William street, Brisbane, the Acts and Orders relating to the Jurisdiction, Practice, and Pleading of the Supreme Court of Queensland (on the Crown Side), arranged with notes by The Honourable George R. Harding, one of the Justices of that Court.

“The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887,” have just been promulgated and published in a Government Gazette for general information, and advantage of this opportunity has been taken to collect, in a convenient form, the Statutes of the Colony relating to the jurisdiction, practice, and pleading of the Court on the Crown Side. This has been done by incorporating them with the Rules, in what appeared to be their appropriate places or under substantive titles.

A full and complete Index has been printed in Roman and Italic type. The Roman refers to the Rules, the Italic to the Statutes and Notes.

Marginal notes have been furnished to all the Rules; and under such marginal notes, and those to the Statutes, have been given, as far as practicable, references to the corresponding English Rules and Statutes, and when the Rule is founded solely on a pre-existing Queensland Rule, to that Rule.

For facility of reference have been added Tables of “The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887,” Appendices to same, Substantive Titles, Miscellaneous Forms, Summaries of Particular Subjects, Cases, and Crimes of the most Frequent Occurrence, with their Punishments, etc.; also a Tabular Statement of Statutes, cited both by their years and short titles, and vice versa by their short titles and years; a Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes, both with reference to the corresponding English and Queensland Statutes printed in the text. But with reference to the pages in the latter analysis of the Queensland Statutes the figures are printed in Roman and Italic, the first indicating that the sections are set out in full, the latter that the sections are only cited; and similarly in the Tabular Analysis of English Statutes, the Roman figures indicate that at such pages the corresponding Queensland sections are set out in full, while the Italics denote that the English section is cited; and when no page is given the English section is not referred to in the text. The citation of the corresponding Queensland section may be found by reference to the Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes.

The whole is uniform in its general arrangement with the Statutes and Orders on the Civil Side, published in 1885.

Demy 4to., 140 pp., interleaved, full bound, in Red Roan.

Price, 42s.; postage, in the colony 1s. 6d. beyond the colony 3s. 6d. extra.

J. C. BEAL,
Government Printer.

ON SALE, at the Government Printing Office, William street, Brisbane, the Acts and Orders relating to the Jurisdiction, Practice, and Pleading of the Supreme Court of Queensland (on the Crown Side), arranged with notes by The Honourable George R. Harding, one of the Justices of that Court.

"The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887," have just been promulgated and published in a Government Gazette for general information, and advantage of this opportunity has been taken to collect, in a convenient form, the Statutes of the Colony relating to the jurisdiction, practice, and pleading of the Court on the Crown Side. This has been done by incorporating them with the Rules, in what appeared to be their appropriate places or under substantive titles.

A full and complete Index has been printed in Roman and Italic type. The Roman refers to the Rules, the Italic to the Statutes and Notes.

Marginal notes have been furnished to all the Rules; and under such marginal notes, and those to the Statutes, have been given, as far as practicable, references to the corresponding English Rules and Statutes, and when the Rule is founded solely on a pre-existing Queensland Rule, to that Rule.

For facility of reference have been added Tables of "The Rules of the Supreme Court (Crown Side), 1887," Appendices to same, Substantive Titles, Miscellaneous Forms, Summaries of Particular Subjects, Cases, and Crimes of the most Frequent Occurrence, with their Punishments, etc.; also a Tabular Statement of Statutes, cited both by their years and short titles, and vice versa by their short titles and years; a Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes, both with reference to the corresponding English and Queensland Statutes printed in the text. But with reference to the pages in the latter analysis of the Queensland Statutes the figures are printed in Roman and Italic, the first indicating that the sections are set out in full, the latter that the sections are only cited; and similarly in the Tabular Analysis of English Statutes, the Roman figures indicate that at such pages the corresponding Queensland sections are set out in full, while the Italics denote that the English section is cited; and when no page is given the English section is not referred to in the text. The citation of the corresponding Queensland section may be found by reference to the Tabular Analysis of Queensland Statutes.

The whole is uniform in its general arrangement with the Statutes and Orders on the Civil Side, published in 1885.

Demy 4to., 140 pp., interleaved, full bound, in Red Roan.

Price, 42s.; postage, in the colony 1s. 6d. beyond the colony 3s. 6d. extra.
